

Gendered Resistance at Times of Economic Crisis

Are you an activist, policy-maker or researcher interested in gender and development? Are you concerned about the current economic crisis?

Friday 30th of October the GADNET and GADIP networks arrange workshops and seminars on these highly topical issues at Annedalsseminariet, University of Gothenburg, Seminariegatan 1a (or through the garden at Övre Husargatan 34). The event is arranged in cooperation with WIDE.

10-13 Invited speakers (room SA302)

- Hameedaa Deedat, researcher and activist, South Africa
- Ewa Charkiewicz, researcher and activist, Feminist Think Tank (Poland)
- Sara Spånt, Department for Economic Opportunities, Sida
- Maria Hernández Padrón, School of Global Studies, Social Anthropology, University of Gothenburg

- Moderator is Anja Franck, Department of Human and Economic Geography, University of Gothenburg

(See presentations below)

13.00-14.30 Lunch (Assembly hall/Aulan)

14.30-16.30 GADIP workshop (room 302 or 303)

14.30-16.30 Dream-catcher seminar (room 403)

(See detailed programme below)

Find an orientation map at <http://www.globalstudies.gu.se/kontakt/>

Announce your presence as a Gadnet or Gadip-member no later than October 21 to nina.gren@globalstudies.gu.se